Too Busy

*My body may age
but my mind will stay young.
I've much left to do,
Many songs to be sung.
Many roads to be traveled,
Much love to express,
Many souls that need aid,
who are now in distress.
I will do what I can
to help brighten your day,
I will spread cheer and love
as I pass by your way.
The world is my oyster
to have and to hold.
Why, I'm really too busy,
to ever grow old.*

Recipes from Home and Memories Made

By Amanda Rossiter

Recently, my youngest daughter made a comment about how my “most famous recipe” is my banana bread. It started a fun conversation between us about how she thinks I could make the banana bread without reading any instructions because I make it so often and it is so good. She really enjoys making it with me. According to her it is the best banana bread. I don't know about that theory, but it got me thinking about my own childhood memories of baking with my own mother and grandmother. Truth be told the banana bread recipe I use was given to me by my mother.

I have many very fond memories of baking with my mom and my grandmother. My favorite recipe to make with my Grammy was her doughnuts recipe. I still try to make them a couple times a year but have yet to perfect them the way she did. Whenever I do make them it always brings a smile to my face to think of the way she would talk when we made them. “Oh just a pinch of this and a little of that” she would say. That might be why I can't perfect them quite the way she could because not everything was wrote down in the recipe.

With my mom, I can remember getting ready for any community wedding or baby shower by making sandwiches, banana bread, cinnamon bread and things like that. She taught me so much about how to bake and cook among so many other things. My favorite thing to bake with my mother was birthday cakes. She still makes the best chocolate or white cake with boiled icing. Part of what was so memorable about the cakes is the tradition that went along with those cakes. In our family we got to pick the meal on our birthday and

Banana Bread

Ingredients:

- 2 eggs
- 1 cup sugar
- 4 Tbsp sour milk
- 1tsp soda
- 2 cups flour
- ½ tsp salt
- 3-4 mushy bananas (darker the better)

Directions:

- Preheat the oven to 350°F (180°C).
- Beat eggs then add sugar.
- Dissolve soda in milk then add to mixture.
- Add flour and salt to mixture.
- Mash bananas with a fork and add last.
- Pour the batter into the prepared loaf pan, until ¾ full
- Bake in the oven for 55-60 minutes. It is finished when a toothpick poked in center comes out clean. Add 5 minutes at a time until done.

what kind of cake we had for dessert. This is a tradition that I have carried on with my own family. Not to mention, my lovely mother still makes birthday cakes for her adult children on our birthdays.

It amazes me the memories that can come flooding back to me when I start baking. I love that these memories are happening for my own children as well. Both of my daughters are capable of baking things. The oldest does well on her own and the youngest just needs a little help with the oven and some of the heavy lifting but we all enjoy baking together. Memories are being made each time. We would love to share your recipes and the memories that go along with them. If you have a recipe to share we would love to hear about it and the memories that go along with it. Email us at info@connectingalbertcounty.org with subject Recipe Memories.

Harvey Hall Celebrating 140 years By Jane Chrysostom

The Harvey Hall is celebrating its 140th year, 1884-2024. 2023 was a full year to celebrate at its Annual General Meeting welcoming a receptive audience of community leaders, civic advocates, friends, neighbors, the Harvey Hall team of advisors and board members, Village of Fundy Albert members of Council, including His Worship Mayor Rob Rochon, historians, volunteers, community activists, cultural advocates, and like-minded folks...it was a terrific and lively crowd!

President pro tem Jane Chrysostom conducted the meeting, keeping business short. We presented former President, Melissa Wilbur, with a gift of our appreciation as we thanked Melissa for spearheading the necessary organization for revitalization of the hall and her 5-year commitment toward those successes. We thanked and acknowledged outgoing board member Cyril Tingley for forty years of service to the Hall. We recounted nearly 1,500 hours of volunteer service by a board of eight and what those efforts realized for programming, community engagement, arts & culture, entertainment, education, and the restoration and preservation of an historic New Brunswick architectural landmark – one of very few in New Brunswick celebrating 140 years all continuously run by volunteers.

And now it's time to get going for 2024! To continue our success, we must enlist more of our talented and experienced friends and followers, to work with our incoming board of Directors:

President, Jane Chrysostom; Vice President, Julia Morais; Secretary, Debbie James; Treasurer, Shelley Wilbur; Steve Chrysostom, Rick Morcom, Peter Brzezicki, and youth leader, Faith Morais.

Too often, folks hesitate to volunteer, join a board, or fill an executive board member seat because of the anticipated amount of time and work that it will take in their already busy schedule, so we're deploying a novel approach of VOLUNTEER DEPLOYMENT. Instead of recruitment and asking that you attend every monthly meeting or make a long-term commitment, we'll ask you to sign up to be deployed for a singular event. Setting up, breaking down, or helping in some way – for a show or helping with a special project, event, or cultural program. This opportunity can engage those 'willing but wary' and those not able to – or open to – joining the board. It's a great option to avoid that too-well-known burnout that so many volunteer organizations experience.

After all, it's our very organizations that keep our communities thriving! Please sign up to be DEPLOYED!

The Rural Upper Fundy Partnership

Friends of Fundy is proud to be the convener of the Rural Upper Fundy Partnership: a first-ever community led development process that is bringing people together to develop a plan that reflects the area's unique community assets and opportunities.

The initiative covers an area spanning Fundy Albert, Sussex, St. Martins, and the adjacent rural areas. One of its primary goals is to improve the wealth and well-being of businesses, communities, and residents of the Rural Upper Fundy region. This year, the Partnership is exploring ways to improve the benefits of tourism in our communities by using Driftscape, a self-guided tour app, that encourages exploring our amazing region.

You can find Driftscape online at <https://www.driftscape.com/> or download in your regular app store. You will also see 'Fundy Tales of the Tides' QR codes throughout the Rural Upper Fundy region. Check it out, and you may find something new in your own neighborhood!

Perfect Dessert for an Election Year: Tory Pudding with Liberal Sauce by James Wilson

My Mom worked for a number of years as a cook at Camp Wildwood. While some of the things she made would end up on the dinner table for years after, none had quite so unique a name as Tory Pudding with Liberal Sauce. Since its an election year let's take a moment to look at this politically-named dessert.

The name contains a pun with 'liberal' both referring to the party and the generous portion of sugary sauce. Its a fun name for what is essentially a type of bread pudding but its not the only name. In Mom's old Barbour cookbook it is referred to as 'Radio Pudding', presumably because people got the recipe off the radio. Searching either name brings up many alternate names such as 'Halifax Pudding', 'Montreal Pudding', 'Half-hour Pudding', and even 'Unemployment Pudding'! Clearly this pudding has gotten around.

The recipe itself is simple. You will need;

- 1 cup of flour
- ½ cup of white sugar
- 1 tsp soda
- 2 tsp cream of tartar
- ¼ tsp salt
- ½ cup of raisins (an unnecessary amendment, in my view, that you are free to vote down)
- ½ cup of milk
- ½ tsp vanilla

Sauce ingredients:

- ½ cup brown sugar
- butter the size of a large walnut
- 2 cups of boiling water

Butter a casserole dish or 8x8 pan. Mix together the ingredients for the dough and put it in the pan.

In a bowl, mix the brown sugar, boiling water, and the butter until combined. Pour over the dough.

There is also an alternative method of putting the sauce in the pan first and dolloping the dough over it. Regardless of how you do it the tory pudding will end up rising above the liberal sauce as it bakes (this is not political commentary).

Place, uncovered, in a 350-degree oven for about 25-30 minutes or until it's reaches a nice brown colour and crusty appearance.

Perhaps members of the NDP are upset they are not included in this dessert. Never fear! A nickname for the party is the 'Dippers', which is another name for a ladle or scoop. This happens to be just the sort of tool you will need to serve this politically-themed dessert. So nice to see all parties working together so well.

Cape Enrage Season Opening - Victoria Day Weekend

by David Jacombs

Well, it is that time of the year. The days are getting longer, the birds are singing, flowers are budding and ... there's a growing anticipation of a gridlocked Route 114. Sunshine is cresting over the horizon in the early morning hours, fog sweeps across the rippling waves and ... BLARE ... the fog horn reverberates across the Bay. Good ole Cape Enrage! Calm and wild as always.

As a new member of the Cape Enrage team, I am amazed that I get to look out across the iconic Bay of Fundy every day this summer. It puts a big smile on my face. Our team is hard at work getting Cape Enrage ready for another busy summer of bustling tourists, but I want to take a moment to remind our residents that we are here and ready to delight.

We are gearing up for another exciting season of ziplining, rappelling, and more. Our Cape House Restaurant is stocked full of new and old delights, and our signature Gift Shop is filled with lots of nature-inspired artwork and memorabilia and a ton of brand-new Cape Enrage swag!

New this season, we have an ice cream shop bursting with an assortment of mouth-watering flavours. Oh, and if the building looks familiar, you may have seen it on the CBC show Race Against the Tide. If you just need a moment to get out and reset, slide onto one of our trails for a serene forest-bathing experience.

Did you know we have fossils? I may be letting the cat out of the bag on this little-known secret, but we actually have some of the most intriguing fossils of the Bay of Fundy region. And to highlight them, we have 2 tours available to explore, see and touch these fossils first hand.

So, I hope you will come and visit this magical place and experience something new and old this season. Make a day of it and after exploring our fossils, head over to the Albert County Museum & RB Bennett Centre located at 3940 Route 114, in Hopewell Cape and visit 'Albert' our newest and oldest member to the area.

Opening Day is May 17th and I hope you will come and say, 'hi'. For more information check out our site at www.capeenrage.ca

VILLAGE OF FUNDY – ALBERT

MAY NEWSLETTER

Big Spring Cleanup

Alma - Monday, May 13

Hillsborough - Monday, May 20

Riverside - Albert - Tuesday May 14

A maximum of 64 cubic feet of waste will be accepted. Only 3 large clean-up items (fridge, stove, freezer, dishwasher, humidifier, washer, BBQ, couch, mattress, dresser, etc.) . Large garbage items should be bagged, boxed or bundled into packages weighing not more than 45lbs or no longer than 6 feet. Please ensure all cardboard is broken down and tied. Tires (removed from rims) will be accepted at 4 per household.

NO CONSTRUCTION/DEMOLITION WASTE. NO CAR PARTS, NO WOOD ASHES.

Reminder: black bags will not be accepted

Regular weekly garbage will be collected the same day. Please separate your garbage properly and set it off to the side for that week.

Some of you may have noticed banners that we have placed in Alma, Riverside-Albert, and Hillsborough; these banners are meant to raise awareness for Sexual Assault Awareness Month. May is Sexual Assault Awareness Month, and it is a time to highlight the importance of supporting survivors and preventing sexual violence. The Jade Centre (formerly known as the South East Sexual Assault Centre) provides bilingual services available to anyone impacted by sexual violence in South East New Brunswick, including people who are supporting a loved one who has experienced sexual violence. We provide free counseling, emotional support, assistance navigating legal systems, accompaniments to police & court, school education programs, and more. If you or someone you know needs support, please reach out to us at 506-295-0151 or our 24-hour crisis line at 1-844-853-0811. For additional information, visit our website at jadecentre.ca. Together, let's raise awareness and create a community where survivors are heard, believed, and supported.

The community of Alma, part of the municipality of Fundy Albert, received an update at a public meeting Wednesday, April 10th on a $12-million project to upgrade its infrastructure. A copy of the presentation can be found by visiting <https://fundyalbert.ca/general-notices/>
